

Better Taste starts next growth phase with new majority shareholder AURELIUS Wachstumskapital

Second „Food & Beverages“-acquisition of AURELIUS Wachstumskapital within the last three month

Grünwald, Ludwigsburg, 13. March 2018 – AURELIUS Wachstumskapital SE & Co. KG (“AWK”) acquired a majority stake in Better Taste Holding GmbH (including its brand “Adler am Schloss”) which provides catering services and operates canteen kitchens. The deal represents AWK’s second acquisition in the “Food & Beverages” sector since December 2017 when the acquisition of Bolero, a restaurant and bar chain was completed. AWK plans to strengthen both portfolio companies via opening of new locations as well as strategic acquisitions going forward.

About Better Taste

Better Taste is located in Ludwigsburg and employs 170 people across three business lines. The segment “Lunch + More” provides healthy meals e.g. for schools, day care centres and kindergartens. In addition, Better Taste operates canteen kitchens. In the segment “Eventcatering/Tellertaxi” Better Taste primarily provides catering services for recurring events (e.g. sport events, trade fairs, event centres).

About AURELIUS Wachstumskapital

As part of the AURELIUS group, AURELIUS Wachstumskapital focuses on buyouts/small and medium-sized succession solutions, on the transfer of business assets of larger medium-sized companies and groups (spin-offs) as well as on companies that have operational improvement potential.

In addition to capital for investment and growth, AURELIUS Wachstumskapital supports the management of companies acquired through extensive entrepreneurial experience, helps to implement growth initiatives and to realise operational potential.

Contact information Better Taste

Managing Partner
Phone +49 162 239 00 70
nico.vitense@aureliusinvest.de