

AURELIUS Wachstumskapital successfully completes acquisition of the restaurant and bar chain Bolero

Restaurant and bar chain comprising eleven locations in Northern and Central Germany

Grünwald, Hamburg, 22. December 2017 – AURELIUS Wachstumskapital SE & Co. KG („AWK“) acquires the Hamburg based restaurant and bar chain Bolero from Gastro Consulting GmbH. AWK plans to further strengthen Bolero via organic growth (e.g. opening of new locations) as well as through strategic acquisitions (also of different chain restaurant concepts).

About Bolero

Bolero is a restaurant and bar chain operator focusing on cocktails and Mexican/Mediterranean cuisine. The company operates eleven venues (2x Hamburg, Bremen, Braunschweig, Duisburg, Gießen, Kassel, Lübeck, Posthausen, Schwerin und Rheine) located in Northern and Central Germany and employs approx. 240 people.

About AURELIUS Wachstumskapital

As part of the AURELIUS group, AURELIUS Wachstumskapital focuses on buyouts/small and medium-sized succession solutions, on the transfer of business assets of larger medium-sized companies and groups (spin-offs) as well as on companies that have operational improvement potential.

In addition to capital for investment and growth, AURELIUS Wachstumskapital supports the management of companies acquired through extensive entrepreneurial experience, helps to implement growth initiatives and to realise operational potential.

Contact information Bolero

Nico Vitense
Managing Partner
Phone +49 162 239 00 70
nico.vitense@aureliusinvest.de